five-eights points, while Reading declined three points, these two stocks being the most active and the weakest on the entire list.

In neither was there any sign of support, and in both the second second the list.

In neither was there any sign of support, and in both there was heavy selling from a number of sources.

Official announcement was made of the sale to a banking syndicate, constituted as forecasted in the merning newspapers, of $50,000,000 first lien and refunding 4 per cent bonds of the Union Pacific Railroad, the amount being $10,000,000 greater than most people in Wall street had anticipated. The bonds are to run for 100 years, and it is understood that they will be offered for subscription at a price of about 95½ and interest in the near future.

There was a content of the end of the size of the content of the sale of the content of the conten

There was a good deal of discussion of the possible meaning of the change recently made in the Reading board of directors, but the probability is that the temporary shutdown of the collieries and the announcement that the dividend would not be increased were the most influential factors making for a decline in this U.

Nothing transpired in the way of additional reductions in the prices of iron and steel products, but it was generally expected that the market for other lines uld speedly follow the market for steel and fron bars. No change was made by the Bank of England in its discount rate, and the Boston Col'd Cop.... 12% 12%
